V. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND INSTRUCTIONS TO DEBTOR(S)

Before agreeing to reaffirm a debt, review the terms disclosed in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I) and these additional important disclosures and instructions.

Reaffirming a debt is a serious financial decision. The law requires you to take certain steps to make sure the decision is in your best interest. If these steps, detailed in Part B below, are not completed, the reaffirmation agreement is not effective, even though you have signed it.

A. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. What are your obligations if you reaffirm a debt? A reaffirmed debt remains your personal legal obligation. Your reaffirmed debt is not discharged in your bankruptcy case. That means that if you default on your reaffirmed debt after your bankruptcy case is over, your creditor may be able to take your property or your wages. Your obligations will be determined by the reaffirmation agreement, which may have changed the terms of the original agreement. If you are reaffirming an open end credit agreement, that agreement or applicable law may permit the creditor to change the terms of that agreement in the future under certain conditions.
2. Are you required to enter into a reaffirmation agreement by any law? No, you are not required to reaffirm a debt by any law. Only agree to reaffirm a debt if it is in your best interest. Be sure you can afford the payments that you agree to make.
3. What if your creditor has a security interest or lien? Your bankruptcy discharge does not eliminate any lien on your property. A “lien” is often referred to as a security interest, deed of trust, mortgage, or security deed. The property subject to a lien is often referred to as collateral. Even if you do not reaffirm and your personal liability on the debt is discharged, your creditor may still have a right under the lien to take the collateral if you do not pay or default on the debt. If the collateral is personal property that is exempt or that the trustee has abandoned, you may be able to redeem the item rather than reaffirm the debt. To redeem, you make a single payment to the creditor equal to the current value of the collateral, as the parties agree or the court determines.
4. How soon do you need to enter into and file a reaffirmation agreement? If you decide to enter into a reaffirmation agreement, you must do so before you receive your discharge. After you have entered into a reaffirmation agreement and all parts of this Reaffirmation Documents packet requiring signature have been signed, either you or the creditor should file it as soon as possible. The signed agreement must be filed with the court no later than 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors, so that the court will have time to schedule a hearing to approve the agreement if approval is required.
5. Can you cancel the agreement? You may rescind (cancel) your reaffirmation agreement at any time before the bankruptcy court enters your discharge, or during the 60-day period that begins on the date your reaffirmation agreement is filed with the court, whichever occurs later. To rescind (cancel) your reaffirmation agreement, you must notify the creditor that your reaffirmation agreement is rescinded (or canceled). Remember that you can rescind the agreement, even if the court approves it, as long as you rescind within the time allowed.

6. When will this reaffirmation agreement be effective?

a. If you were represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your reaffirmation agreement

i. if the creditor is not a Credit Union, your reaffirmation agreement becomes effective upon filing with the court unless the reaffirmation is presumed to be an undue hardship in which case the agreement becomes effective only after the court approves it;

ii. if the creditor is a Credit Union, your reaffirmation agreement becomes effective when it is filed with the court.

b. If you were not represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your reaffirmation agreement, the reaffirmation agreement will not be effective unless the court approves it. To have the court approve your agreement, you must file a motion. See Instruction 5, below. The court will notify you and the creditor of the hearing on your reaffirmation agreement. You must attend this hearing, at which time the judge will review your reaffirmation agreement. If the judge decides that the reaffirmation agreement is in your best interest, the agreement will be approved and will become effective. However, if your reaffirmation agreement is for a consumer debt secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, security deed, or other lien on your real property, like your home, you do not need to file a motion or get court approval of your reaffirmation agreement.

7. What if you have questions about what a creditor can do? If you have questions about reaffirming a debt or what the law requires, consult with the attorney who helped you negotiate this agreement. If you do not have an attorney helping you, you may ask the judge to explain the effect of this agreement to you at the hearing to approve the reaffirmation agreement. When this disclosure refers to what a creditor “may” do, it is not giving any creditor permission to do anything. The word “may” is used to tell you what might occur if the law permits the creditor to take the action.

B. INSTRUCTIONS

1. Review these Disclosures and carefully consider the decision to reaffirm. If you want to reaffirm, review and complete the information contained in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I above). If your case is a joint case, both spouses must sign the agreement if both are reaffirming the debt.
2. Complete the Debtor’s Statement in Support of Reaffirmation Agreement (Part II above). Be sure that you can afford to make the payments that you are agreeing to make and that you have received a copy of the Disclosure Statement and a completed and signed Reaffirmation Agreement.
3. If you were represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement, your attorney must sign and date the Certification By Debtor’s Attorney section (Part IV above).
4. You or your creditor must file with the court the original of this Reaffirmation Documents packet and a completed Reaffirmation Agreement Cover Sheet (Official Bankruptcy Form 427).
5. If you are not represented by an attorney, you must also complete and file with the court a separate document entitled “Motion for Court Approval of Reaffirmation Agreement unless your reaffirmation agreement is for a consumer debt secured by a lien on your real property, such as your home. You can use Form B2400B to do this.

C. DEFINITIONS

1. “Amount Reaffirmed” means the total amount of debt that you are agreeing to pay (reaffirm) by entering into this agreement. The amount of debt includes any unpaid fees and costs arising on or before the date you sign this agreement that you are agreeing to pay. Your credit agreement may obligate you to pay additional amounts that arise after the date you sign this agreement. You should consult your credit agreement to determine whether you are obligated to pay additional amounts that may arise after the date of this agreement.
2. “Annual Percentage Rate” means the interest rate on a loan expressed under the rules required by federal law. The annual percentage Rate (as opposed to the “stated interest rate”) tells you the full cost of your credit including many of the creditor’s fees and charges. You will find the annual percentage rate for your original agreement on the disclosure statement that was given to you when the loan papers were signed or on the monthly statements sent to you for an open end credit account such as a credit card.
3. “Credit Union” means a financial institution as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 461(b)(1)(A)(iv). It is owned and controlled by and provides financial services to its members and typically uses words like “Credit Union” or initials like “C.U.” or “F.C.U.” in its name.

Your Promise to Pay. You agree to pay us the Amount Financed and Finance Charge provided for on Page 1 of this Contract according to the Payment Schedule, also shown on Page 1 of this Contract. This is a simple finance charge contract. This means we will figure the Finance Charge on a daily basis at the Annual Percentage Rate shown on page 1 of this Contract on the unpaid part of the Amount Financed. The Finance Charge, Total of Payments, and Total Sale Price shown on Page 1 of this Contract are based on the assumption that you will make every payment on the day it is due. Your Finance Charge, Total of Payments, and Total Sale Price will be more if you pay late and less if you pay early. Also, if you pay late it is likely that your final payment will be larger than originally scheduled. You must make your payments to the Seller at the address shown above. If this Contract is transferred, you agree to make your payments to the subsequent holder of this Contract (Assignee) at the address provided by the Assignee or Seller.

Your Representations. You promise that you have given true and correct information in your credit application. You understand that in entering this Contract we have relied on the representations you have made to us. Upon request, you agree to provide us with documents and other information necessary to verify any item contained in your credit application.

Applicable Law. Federal law and the law of the State of Mississippi apply to this Contract. If any provision is not valid, all others stay valid to the extent allowed by applicable law.

Late Charge. You will pay a late charge as described in the Late Charge section on Page 1 of this Contract.

Returned Check Service Charge. If a check, draft, order, electronically converted check or electronic commercial debit presented to us for payment is returned unpaid due to insufficient funds, we may charge you a service fee up to a maximum amount of $15.00.

Care, Use, and Location of the Vehicle. You agree to pay us all you owe under this Contract even if the Vehicle is damaged, destroyed, or missing. You agree to keep the Vehicle in good condition and repair. If there is any loss or damage to the Vehicle, you will give us prompt written notice of the loss or damage. You agree not to use the Vehicle for hire or to sell, rent, lease, or transfer any interest in the Vehicle or this Contract. You agree that you will not permit the Vehicle to be used in any illegal manner or expose the Vehicle to misuse, seizure, confiscation, or involuntary transfer. The Vehicle will be kept at the address you provided to us in this Contract as shown on Page 1. You agree to notify us in writing of any change in your address or the location at which the Vehicle is regularly located. You are not allowed to remove the Vehicle from the United States. You may, however, take the Vehicle to Canada as long as it is for a period of 30 days or less.

Insurance Requirements. You agree to have physical damage insurance covering loss or damage to the Vehicle as long as amounts are owed under this Contract. The insurance must have comprehensive, collision, fire, and theft coverage in amounts acceptable to us and with the minimum available deductible. All required insurance must be with a properly licensed insurer reasonably acceptable to us and must name us as an additional insured and loss payee. You agree to give us evidence of all required insurance promptly upon request. You agree that any insurance proceeds payable due to damage or loss of the Vehicle will be paid directly and solely to us. At our choice, we may use the insurance proceeds to repair the Vehicle or to pay amounts owed under this Contract. You agree that we may settle any insurance claim or sign any insurance checks on your behalf as necessary and if allowed by law.

Failure to Maintain Insurance. If you fail to maintain the required physical damage insurance, we may buy it for you. At our choice, the insurance we buy may only cover our interest in the Vehicle and be limited to what you owe under this Contract at the time. This means the insurance we obtain may not cover your interest in the Vehicle or any loss that you incur. We will charge you for any insurance we purchase. The insurance we buy may cost more than the insurance you could buy on your own. The charge for the insurance will be the amount advanced for it and a finance charge at the Annual Percentage Rate shown on Page 1 of this Contract or, if less, the highest rate allowed by law.

Security Interest. You give us a security interest in the Vehicle, any proceeds received for the Vehicle, and any accessories, equipment, and replacement parts installed on the Vehicle. You also give us a security interest in any insurance, service, or other contracts we finance for you and all proceeds from any insurance, service, or other contracts on the Vehicle, including refunds of premiums or charges from the contracts we finance for you. The security interest you are giving us secures all amounts owed by you under this Contract and all the other agreements you have made in this Contract.

Optional Service or GAP Contracts. This Contract may contain charges for an optional service or GAP contract. If you are in default under this Contract, you agree that we may claim benefits under any optional contract or cancel it to obtain a refund for unearned charges and reduce amounts you owe. If you cancel an optional contract, you authorize us to receive any refund for unearned charges and apply it to what you owe under this Contract.

"Trade-In" and Downpayment. You promise that you own and have valid title to any vehicle you sold to us as a "Trade-In." You represent that any "Trade-In" vehicle is free from any lien or security interest except as you have disclosed to us in writing. You promise that you have made the downpayment shown in the Itemization of Amount Financed on Page 1 of this Contract and that you have not borrowed it.

Title, Taxes, and Other Charges. You agree to make sure that the title to the Vehicle shows our security interest. You also agree that we will be the only party with a security interest in the Vehicle and that our security interest will be the only security interest that appears on the title. You agree that you are, or will be, the registered owner of the Vehicle and that you will comply with all registration, licensing, tax, and title laws that apply to the Vehicle. You agree to pay when due all taxes, fees, repair bills, storage bills, fines, assessments, and other charges relating to the Vehicle. At our choice, we may pay any of these items to protect our interest in the Vehicle. If we do so and if allowed by law, you agree to repay us at our request.

Default and Required Repayment in Full. You will be in default if you fail to make any payment required by this Contract. You will also be in default if you break any other promise you have made in this Contract or if a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding is initiated by you or against you. If you default we may require that you pay all you owe on this Contract at once. All amounts owed following your default will continue to accrue finance charge or interest at the Annual Percentage Rate shown on Page 1 of this Contract or the highest rate allowed by law until paid in full.

Other Remedies Upon Default. Upon your default we may take (repossess) the Vehicle from you as long as we do so peacefully. All accessories, equipment or replacement parts will remain with the Vehicle following repossession.

Getting the Vehicle and Property Back After Repossession. If we repossess the Vehicle, you have the right to get it back until we sell it. This is your right to redeem. We will tell you what you need to do or how much you need to pay to redeem the Vehicle. If any personal property is in the Vehicle, we will store it for you at your expense. If you do not pick up your personal property, we will sell it if the law allows us to do so.

Sale of the Repossessed Vehicle. We will send you a written notice of sale before we sell the Vehicle. We will apply money from a sale to our expenses and then to amounts you owe under this Contract. Our expenses may include costs incurred by us in repossessing the Vehicle, holding and storing it, preparing it for sale, and selling it. If there is money left over, we will pay it to you unless we are required to pay it to someone else. If there is not enough money to pay all you owe, you will have to pay us the remaining balance.

Collection Costs. If we refer this Contract for collection or enforcement to an attorney who is not our salaried employee, you agree to pay our reasonable attorney's fees, plus court costs. The attorney's fees will not exceed 15% of the total amount owed under the Contract at the time of your default and we require that you pay all amounts owed under the Contract at once.

Application of Payments and Partial Prepayments. We may apply each payment to earned and unpaid finance charge and to other amounts you owe under this Contract in any order we choose. If you make a partial prepayment you must still continue to make your regular monthly payments as scheduled in this Contract.

Delay in Enforcing Rights. We will not lose any of our rights under this Contract if we delay or refrain from enforcing them. For example, we may extend the time for making some payments without extending others. Our acceptance of any late or partial payment does not excuse your late or partial payment or mean that you may continue to make late or partial payments.

Communications. You agree that we may monitor and record telephone calls regarding this Contract. You expressly consent that we may contact you (by calls, emails, text messages or other electronic messages) for any purpose related to this Contract by any means, including but not limited to the use of prerecorded/artificial voice messages or automatic telephone dialing devices. Your express consent applies to any email addresses or telephone numbers we obtain or you provide in any manner and at any time, including email addresses or cellular telephone numbers for which you may incur voice, data or other charges.

This Contract has 4 pages, plus any optional GAP Waiver Agreement. This is Page 2. By initialing below you represent that you have read and agree to all provisions on all pages.

ARBITRATION PROVISION

This Arbitration Provision describes when and how a Claim (defined below) shall be arbitrated. Arbitration is a way of resolving disputes before one or more neutral persons, instead of having a trial in court before a judge and/or jury. By signing this Contract, you and we agree to be bound by the terms of this Arbitration Provision.

For purposes of this Arbitration Provision, references to "we," "us" and "our" mean the Seller, including its respective subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, employees and officers, or anyone to whom the Seller transfers its rights under the Contract.

IF YOU OR WE CHOOSE ARBITRATION, THEN ARBITRATION SHALL BE MANDATORY, AND:

- ANY CLAIM WILL BE DECIDED BY ARBITRATION AND NOT IN COURT OR BY A JURY TRIAL.
- DISCOVERY AND RIGHTS TO APPEAL ARE LIMITED BY THE ARBITRATION RULES OF THE ARBITRATION ADMINISTRATOR.
- YOU GIVE UP YOUR RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE AS A REPRESENTATIVE OR MEMBER OF A CLASS IN A CLASS ACTION ("CLASS ACTION WAIVER").
- OTHER RIGHTS THAT YOU OR WE WOULD HAVE IN COURT MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE IN ARBITRATION.

a. What Claims are Covered. A "Claim" is any claim, dispute or controversy between you and us that in any way arises from or relates to this consumer credit sale, the purchase you are financing by way of this Contract, the Vehicle and related goods and services that are the subject of the purchase and this Contract, or the collection or servicing of this Contract, including but not limited to:

- Initial claims, counterclaims, cross-claims and third-party claims;
- Disputes based on contract, tort, consumer rights, fraud and other intentional torts (at law or in equity, including any claim for injunctive or declaratory relief);
- Disputes based on constitutional grounds or on laws, regulations, ordinances or similar provisions; and
- Disputes about the validity, enforceability, arbitrability or scope of this Arbitration Provision or this Contract, subject to paragraph (f) of this Arbitration Provision.

b. Commencing Arbitration. Either you or we may require any Claim to be arbitrated by first sending to the other party, by certified mail, a written notice of dispute ("Notice"). This Notice shall (1) describe the nature and basis of the Claim and (2) set forth the specific relief sought. If we do not reach an agreement to resolve the Claim within 30 days after the Notice is received, you or we may commence an arbitration proceeding.

Arbitration of a Claim must comply with this Arbitration Provision and the applicable rules and procedures of the arbitration Administrator. Arbitration is not mandatory for an individual Claim that you or we may choose to bring in small claims court or the state's equivalent court, if any. If that Claim is transferred, removed or appealed to a different court, you or we then may choose arbitration.

c. Choosing the Administrator. If you initiate the arbitration proceeding, you may choose either of the following arbitration Administrators: (1) American Arbitration Association, 120 Broadway, New York, NY 10271, www.adr.org, (800) 778-7879 or (2) JAMS, 1920 Main Street, Suite 300, Irvine, CA 92614, www.jamsadr.com, (800) 352-5267. The Administrator you choose will have rules that apply to the proceeding. Important information regarding the arbitration process and more complete information regarding arbitration procedures may be found at either Administrator's website. If the Administrator you choose is unable or unwilling or ceases to serve as the Administrator, you or we may choose the other Administrator. If both Administrators are unable or unwilling or cease to serve as the Administrator, you or we may choose another Administrator, subject to the other's approval. In all cases, any arbitrator must be a lawyer or a retired judge with at least 10 years of legal experience. If we initiate the arbitration proceeding, we will give you 20 days to choose the Administrator. If you do not choose the Administrator within that time, we will choose one for you. No matter which Administrator is chosen, you shall have the right to be represented by an attorney of your own choosing, subject to any limitations in the Administrator's rules.

d. Choosing the Location. Any arbitration hearing that you attend must take place at a location reasonably convenient to your residence.

e. Paying for Arbitration. Each Administrator charges fees to administer an arbitration proceeding. This may include fees not charged by a court. When you choose an Administrator, you should carefully review the fees charged by the Administrator. The fees and costs of any arbitration, including any initial filing fees, shall be paid in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Administrator. Each party must pay the expense of that party's attorneys, experts, and witnesses, regardless of which party prevails in the arbitration, unless applicable law or the Administrator's rules, procedures or standards provide otherwise.

f. Class Action Waiver. You give up your right to participate in a class action. This means that you may not be a representative or member of any class of claimants or act as a private attorney general in court or in arbitration with respect to any Claim. Further, unless both you and we agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's Claim or Claims. Notwithstanding any other part of this Arbitration Provision, the validity and effect of the Class Action Waiver must be determined only by a court and not by an arbitrator. If a court limits or voids the Class Action Waiver, then this entire Arbitration Provision (except for this paragraph) will be null and void.

g. Right to Discovery. The parties shall have the right to discovery of non-privileged information and documents relevant to the Claim, subject to the rules and procedures of the Administrator.

h. Arbitration Result and Right of Appeal. Judgment upon the award given by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. In response to a timely request from either party, the arbitrator must provide a brief written explanation of the basis for any award. The arbitrator's decision is final and binding, except for any right of appeal provided by the Federal Arbitration Act. Any party can appeal the award to a three-arbitrator panel administered by the Administrator, which must reconsider any aspect of the initial award requested by the appealing party. Reference in this Arbitration Provision to the "arbitrator" means the panel of arbitrators. If an appeal of the arbitrator's decision has been taken. Subject to applicable law, costs of such an appeal will be borne by the appealing party regardless of the outcome of the appeal, unless applicable law or the Administrator's rules provide otherwise. However, we will consider any good faith, reasonable request for us to pay all or any part of those fees if you are the appealing party.

i. Governing Law. This Arbitration Provision is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act and not by any state arbitration law. The arbitrator must apply applicable statutes of limitations and claims of privilege recognized at law, and applicable substantive law consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act. The arbitrator is authorized to award all individual remedies permitted by the substantive law that would apply if the action were pending in court.

j. Rules of Interpretation. This Arbitration Provision survives the repayment of all amounts owed to us, the transfer of the Contract, and any bankruptcy by you, to the extent not inconsistent with applicable bankruptcy law. Except as provided in paragraph (f), if any part of this Arbitration Provision is determined to be invalid or unenforceable, this Arbitration Provision and the Contract will remain enforceable. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between this Arbitration Provision and the applicable arbitration rules or the other provisions of this Contract or any other contract between you and us, this Arbitration Provision will govern.
